

West Linn Police Arrest Teen for Drug Dealing

Press release date: 2010-12-03

WEST LINN - West Linn Police School Resource Officer (SRO) Mike Francis arrested Garret Taylor Smith, 18 of West Linn, for Possession of Psilocybin mushrooms and marijuana within 1000 feet of a school on Wednesday, December 1, 2010.

SRO Francis received information from a staff member at the West Linn High School about two students who smelled like green, un-burnt marijuana. SRO Francis located Mr. Smith as he left campus in his car; he stopped the vehicle on Rosemont Road and was immediately struck by the strong odor of green marijuana.

Mr. Smith was arrested and during the investigation he was found to be in possession of about two ounces of marijuana, LSD, Hash Oil, liquid MDMA, Ecstasy, six bongs, flavored rolling papers and a "fake urine kit" used to fool drug tests.

He was lodged at the Clackamas County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bail on the possession charges and more charges may be forthcoming.

"This student was like a candy store of drugs" said SRO Francis, "He had quite an extensive inventory."
